This land is situated in a unique area of forest, surrounded by Oaks and Holm oaks, along a forest road.

It's not possible to build on this land, as it is inserted in a protected area, but can be a good idea to park a caravan during some periods of the year..

On this land there are several trees, especially olive trees and some holm oaks.

The access to the land is made through an ancient forest road, but it is in good condition and wide enough to pass a trailer.

The area of the land along the road is almost flat where you can easily park a caravan, after some necessary cleaning.

This land is about 7km distance from the towns of Ansiao, where you can find everything for daily life, such as:

* Supermarkets

* Pharmacies

* Banks

* Health centre

There are also easy and fast road connections to all directions in Portugal.

The Silver Coast beaches are just 45km distance from this land, which allows switching vacation periods; staying for sometime in the forested countryside area, with visits to the beach without big difficulties.

This is an excellent opportunity for those who have a caravan and looking for a place in Portugal, to use for holiday periods or for temporary visits.
